From lieu-dit Les Treux, Julien's 2018 Echezeaux Grand Cru unfurls in the glass with scents of cherries and wild berries mingled with burning embers, rich soil tones, orange rind and peonies. On the palate, it's full-bodied, broad and layered, with a rich but lively core of fruit and a muscular chassis of ripe, powdery tannin. Macerated for 18 days and matured entirely in new barrels, it's very promising.
