This is a special bottling of their Vintage Port, the 2020 400th Anniversary Special Edition 1620-2020 Vintage Port, which has a very classical nose of dry hay and straw, spices and herbs, with a smoky twist, notes of ripe berry fruit and a hint of liqueur. The palate is powerful and seamless, with plenty of tannin. It's very young and undeveloped but balanced. It felt like a wine from yesteryear, in need of a long time in bottle. It's a lot less sweet at only 84 grams per liter of sugar. I liked this twist to go back to the old style. 2,742 bottles produced. It was bottled in September 2022.
