The red grapes from the old field blend went to produce the 2021 Parapente Tinto, mostly Bastardo and Tinta Amarela, both grapes with a pale color and good freshness, and small percentages of Tinta Roriz and Baga. It fermented in lagar, was foot trodden and matured in 500-liter barrels, 30% of them new, for 18 months. It is spicy and a little marked by the élevage in new wood, with a resinous touch, hints of pine needles and red and black berry fruit. It has contained ripeness, 13.5% alcohol and balancing acidity. 1,800 bottles produced. It was bottled in 2023.
